THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION
50X1

1. The "Eska" Plant, National Corporation, is located in the outskirts of Cheb. For exact location see Enclosure (A). It produces bicycles for domestic consumption and export. Parts for this production are supplied from the towns of Rakovník, Rokycany, and Skuteč. The bicycles are exported to Palestine, China, North Africa, Belgium and England.
2. The plant consists of two three-story brick buildings with tile roofs, each building 8 x 15 meters. It has three large presses and special equipment for nickel, chrome, copper, tin and bronze plating. Nickel, tin, copper, brass and chemicals (salts) are supplied from Czechoslovak enterprises and are stored in the plant itself. Water is supplied from the river Ohře; the factory is powered by electricity.
3. The plant directorate is located in the plant. The director is Mr (fnu) Personá.
4. The plant employs 300 employees, 20 of which are administrative employees and experts. There is a factory guard consisting of four men. The average wage of employees of the plant is about 3,00 kcs. Working hours consist of only one shift, from 6 am to 2 pm.
